Captain Reynolds stated that he saw nothing remarkable in the condition of Mr. Blair except that he had his foot bandaged, which, Mr. Blair said, was caused by a fall from a step ladder.

The evidence of the holice Captain was that Mr. Blair talked in an intelligent manner, and that he noticed nothing wrong with his mental condition during the ten minutes they conversed.

He testified that he saw Mr. Blair carried from the Four Courts, and, though he did not know of his own knowledge whither he was taken, he understood that Mr. Blair was removed to the private car. whither he was taken, he understood that Mr. Blair was removed to the private car. # HARD TO SECURE WATSON JURY

Eight of the Necessary Forty Talesmen Are Yet to Be Chosen in New London Trial.

MARKED INTEREST IS SHOWN.

Deputies Arouse Farmers After Midnight, Summoning Them for Prospective Jurors.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. New London, Me., Jan. E.-Out of a total of fifty-two talegenen examined today eleven qualified to sit as jurors in the Watson case. Twenty-eight of the panel of eighty ordered yesterday remain to be questioned, and Judge Eby, just before court adjourned, directed Sheriff Adkisson to summon twenty additional from the forty-eight. The chances seem good that the eight necessary for the panel of forty qualified jurers will be chosen before the close of to-morrow's session. The Sheriff and three deputies started out yesterday evening, and while the thermometer was leaving the zero mark far above the registry of the mercury they were searching Ralls County over for jurors. Long after midnight they visited the farmbouses and, rousing the inmates, ordered the men into New Londea by 1:20 this afternoon.

The first twelve put under the fire of the questioners resulted surprisingly well, as five of them qualified. From the next dozen there was not a one who had not formed an opinion as to the guilt of Doctor Watson. When the last man had been retired, eight more remained to be se-

The eleven who qualified to-day are: S E. Low. Philip Stewart, J. W. James, S. E. Northcott, A. A. Griffin, all of Saverton; W. O. Ricks, Sait River; R. W. Clark, Sam Neely of Spencer; Clarence Howard, Theodore Clark, J. T. Kiethly of Center. DEEP INTEREST SHOWN.

Should the balance of the panel be se cured to-morrow, there is every probability that the jury proper will be named by Friday. Then the opening statements will be made and the introduction of evi-dence may begin Saturday. Court ad-journed taitil 9 o'clock to-morrow morn-dence may begin Saturday. Court adjourned taitil 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

During the preliminaries there is little of a starting nature, but the deepert interest is manifested. The courtroom was again crowded to-day, and for the first time ladies were present. Three sensoi teachers occupied seats close to the door for a few moments while the common-piez procedure of qualifying jurors was in progress. They did not stay long.

From the wall behind the judicial bench George Weshington frowns upon the court. Thomas Jefferson, flanked by Alexender M. Dockery, is at the right of Justice, and at the other side William J. Bryan as a young Congressman and Joseph W. Folk grace the scene. The portrait of Harry R. lidwes further over completes the gallery of celebrities.

Witnesses are arriving on every train. Doctor R. E. Suter of Ferry, a brother of Mrs. Watson, was one of the most prominent in court to-day.

He assisted in conducting the post-mortem examination over the body of his rister, and has been prominent in the attest of Doctor Watson. This is his first appearance in New London since the opening of the trial. He was in close conversation with the attorneys for the prosecution.

COLORADO WITNESSES. The Colorade contingent of witnesser started to-day for the trial. They come from Pueblo and Denver. Those for the State will be used in an endeavor to show the relations existing between Doctor Wat-son, his wife and a milliner, whose name has been most prominently mentioned in the case he case. The witnesses for the defense will be calcid upon to substantiate the mass of depositions, covering the same ground, which have just been filed. Important evi-which have just been filed. Important evidence touching upon the insurance features of the case will also be produced by the Colorado contingent, which is due tomorrow or Friday. Quarters at a private house have been secured for them.

One of the most important witnesses for the State came in this morning. He is James W. Owen of Kansas City, who is said to have been the first to see the dead body of Mrs. Watson under the Sait River bridge after the alleged runsway. Owen could not be found at the time of the Coroner's inquest and did not testify at that time. H. R. Willis and J. W. McCarty, who were clerks at the Inside Inn at the Weeld's Fair, are here to testify with regard to the movements of bector Watson with respect to the Deaver milliner during with respect to the Denver milliner during the week following the death of Mrs. Watson, Attorneys for the defense main-nala that the milliner will be here in per-son to take the stand. This question is passibly the most discussed by the hotel

If the milliner, whose name has appeared so frequently in recitals of events before and after the accident at the bridge, appears at the trial, her presence will probably be the most sensational feature of the proceedings.

DO NOT BELIEVE SERVIEN IS INSANE

Slayer of Saloonkeeper, Who Escaped From Asylum, Will Not Tell Who Aided Him.

Although Marie Emile Servien will be taken back to the asylum from which he escaped recently, the police do not believe that he is insane. After a conver sation with him yesterday morning. Chief of Police Kiely and Chief of Detectives Desmond came to that conclusion. Servien was brought back to St. Louis yesterday by Detective Michael Cremin from Galveston, Tex., and will be taken to the insane asylum at Farmington, by guards to-day. On the way from Galveston, though

On the way from Galveston, though chained and strapped. Servien tried to jump from a car window, but was overpowered by the detective.

Chief of Police Kiely and Chief of Detectives Desmond are not so confident now that Servien is insanc. He refused, after telling how he escaped from the asylum by means of a rope made from his clothing and a swim across the river, to tell the rame of a person who assisted him. He's a friend of mine and I'll not turn him up," he replied to the question put by the chiefs. This answer, they say, is sufficient in their mines to dispel the kiea that he is insane.

Servien killed Charles Bonneti in his salvon at Ninth and Morgan streets last summer. His actions were those of an insare man, and the real reason for the killing has been a mystery, though Servien in his ramiding manner has told several different stories.

NO EVIDENCE OF MURDER. SAYS CHIEF DESMOND.

Body of Alleged "Bluebeard's" Wife May Be Exhamed if Coroner Baron Belleves Arsenie Traces Remain.

Chief Desmond last night declared that he had received no report from the two detectives whom he detailed to investigate the death of Mrs. John Schultz, wife of the man who is termed the "Modern Blueboard" for whom the police of several cities are searching.

"We have taken up the investigation of this case, as we do all others of the kind," raid Chief Desmond. "If we can get evidence that Mrs. Schults was murdered we will place it before the Coroner and the prosecuting officers.

"As for exhunding the body, that is not within our province. If the Coroner believes it could be determined at this late day that Mrs. Schuliz's death was due to arsente, he may exhume the body to have an enalysis made.

"If Mrs. Schuliz's daugnter will make a direct charge that death was due to arsente.

"If Mrs. Schulit's daughter will make a direct charge that death was due to arsenie and not to uracula, as stated in the borial certificate, I will keep my men working on the case indefinitely to sift the matter to the bottom."

From the manner of Chief Desmond's conversation it is not apparent that he places much stock in the case.

The Coroner yesterday had not begun an investigation of the case. The matter, it is said, has been presented to Dector Barron, but he has not decided to cause an investigation. Physiciana, it is said, are convinced that it would be almost impossible to detect the presence of arsenic or other poisson at this late date.
